

Outrageous Humility

A lesson from the greatest man who ever lived

There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to testify about about the Light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the Light, but he came to testify about the Light. There was the true Light which, coming into the world, enlightens every man.
John 1:6-9 NASB

◆ Three important truths about John

1. John was _____ from God.
2. John was a _____, to _____ about the Light.
3. John was _____ the light.

The following day John was again standing with two of his disciples. As Jesus walked by, John looked at him and declared, "Look! There is the Lamb of God!" When John's two disciples heard this, they followed Jesus.
