For further reflection and spiritual growth:

- Take time to look over each of the eight names of God we discussed today. Which of these describes your own personal experience with Him? Thank and praise Him in prayer for revealing himself to you in that way.
- Which of these names of God exposes an area of real struggle in your life? Take time today and throughout this week to focus and pray on the name of God that speaks to your greatest need.
- Read Psalm 91:1-16 slowly and see how many more names of God you can identify in this passage. What terms are used to describe who God is and what He does for us
